The State University of New Jersey

Rutgers, The State University, which began as a struggling colonial college before the Revolution, celebrated its Bicentennial Anniversary in 1966. Founded in 1766 by Dutch pioneers, Rutgers originally was called Queens College under a charter from King George III of England. The young college's existence was threatened by the Revolution, but growth followed that conflict, just as unprecedented expansion was experienced after the last World War.

Rutgers was given its present name in 1825, after generous gifts had been received from Colonel Rutgers, a New York philanthropist. Forty years later it was designated the Land Grant College of New Jersey, the liberal arts course was enlarged, and courses leading to bachelor degrees in agriculture and engineering were added.

New Jersey College for Women (renamed Douglass in 1955) was founded in 1918 and in 1945, all divisions of Rutgers were brought within the designation of the State University of New Jersey. The College of South Jersey, now known as Camden-Rutgers, joined the family in 1950 and Rutgers came under management of an 11-man Board of Governors as Rutgers, The State University, in 1955.

Under the direction of Dr. Mason W. Gross, president from 1959 to Sept. 1, 1971, Rutgers grew from approximately 3,500 to about 7,000 now, including enrollment at Livingston, the newest college of the University. Continued expansion is expected within the next 10 to 15 years.

The Rutgers Coaching Staff

John F. Bateman, Head Coach

AN OVERALL mark of 62-40 and four outstanding teams—9-0 in 1961, 8-1 in 1960, 8-2 in 1968 and 6-3 in 1969 are the highlights of the 11 years John Bateman has spent as head coach of Rutgers football.

Bateman brought instant success here from three years as an assistant at Penn and 11 years as an aide to Lou Little at Columbia. His first two teams won 17 of 18 games and Bateman, himself, asked, "What do we do for an encore?"

The Scarlet then ran into some lean years, just about breaking even. In 1968 things began clicking again and Rutgers earned fifth place in the East with its 8-2 record and won its last five games. "That was my most satisfying season as a coach," Bateman said.

A native New Jerseyan, Bateman attended Central High and St. Benedict's Prep in Newark before entering Columbia in 1934. He played guard under Little at Morningside Heights, captaining the 1937 Lion eleven. After three years in the Navy and three years of coaching at Middletown, N. Y., High School, he joined Little's staff at his alma mater in 1940.

When Bateman first came to Rutgers, he installed the double-wing T which had been successful at Penn under Steve Sebo. In recent years, the Scarlet has changed to a balanced line T attack, including the "I" and split backfields. "You can't stand pat. Defenses catch up with offenses and new (old) wrinkles must be tried," Bateman says.

Named in 1961 as "Coach of the Year" by the Washington, D. C., Touchdown Club, Bateman holds a master's degree in political science and a doctorate in education from Columbia. To many, he is known as "Doctor John."

Bateman and his wife, Anita, have three sons and are grandparents.

Frank Burns, Associate Head Coach

FRANK BURNS assumed a new job in 1968 and in the process, lost some of his records. Appointed as Associate Head Coach by Bateman, Burns continued to direct the offense and his number one pupil, Rich Policastro, proceeded to wipe some of Burns' passing records off the Rutgers books. This is Burns' third term on the Rutgers coaching staff. Immediately after concluding a spectacular college career as a quarterback, he became a freshman aide in 1949. He left here for a two-year stint as head coach at Johns Hopkins, returned in 1956, then spent four years as head coach at Chatham High School. He joined Bateman's staff in 1961. A native of Roselle Park, Burns earned All-East honors as a quarterback and played in the East-West and Herald Tribune Shrine games, earning the most valuable player trophy in the latter.

Robert Naso, Defensive Coach

BOB NASO became defensive coordinator in 1968, his third job as a member of John Bateman's staff. Originally the freshman coach, a post he held three years, Naso became defensive line coach in 1964 and in 1968 took charge of defensive planning. Naso, who was head lacrosse coach from 1962 through 1971, excelled in football and lacrosse as an undergraduate. An All-American in the latter sport, he had a 69-46-1 record as coach. In 1968 he was head coach of the North team in the all-star game.

William J. Speranza, Defensive Backs

SUCCESS has followed Bill Speranza's football career. As a senior quarterback, he helped guide Rutgers to an undefeated record (9-0 in 1961). His last of four seasons as Rutgers freshman coach (1967) the record was 5-0. And in 1968, when he took charge of the defensive backs, Rutgers went 8-2 and his pass defenders held the opposition to only five touchdowns via the air—three in the last game. Speranza, who coached for two years in his native Bethlehem, Pa., was an outstanding baseball catcher for Rutgers in addition to playing football.

Speranza

James Taigia, Offensive Line

NEW TO the staff in 1968, Jim Taigia in 1969 took over direction of the offensive line, facing a giant rebuilding task. Graduation took its greatest toll in these ranks. A teammate of Frank Burns' during their Rutgers playing days under Harvey Harman, Taigia coached at Piscataway, Hillside and Rahway High Schools before returning to his alma mater. He was a guard as a college player. While a high school coach, he was active as a basketball official.

Sampson Brown, Defensive Line

AFTER TWO years as assistant freshman coach, with responsibilities for coaching the linemen, Sam Brown was frosh coach in 1969 and became defensive line coach last year. A native and resident of Rahway, Sam came to Rutgers in 1964 as a 24-year-old sophomore and after seven years away from competition, made the varsity as a defensive lineman. Sam has been active in community work and in 1968 served as director of the N.C.A.A.-sponsored Rutgers Summer Youth Program. His 1969 team was 5-2.

Peter Savino, Freshman Coach

NEWEST MEMBER of the Rutgers staff is Pete Savino, who has been singled out since his arrival as a player at Rutgers in 1965 as "coaching material." A great at Perth Amboy High School, Pete played quarterback, end and defensive back for Rutgers and coaches the freshman backs. He is doing graduate study in addition to coaching.

LAFAYETTE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 20; Lettermen Lost: 14

Although offense has been the trade mark of Lafayette teams recently, first-year Coach Neil Putnam believes that defense will be the strong point. Linemen Joe Person and Stu Steelman form the nucleus for the defense. The secondary may be the strongest position with five lettermen returning.

Offensively, Putnam hopes that senior Jack Hickl will succeed at quarterback. The running game should be strong with the return of last year's leading rusher, Tom Conway. Lafayette will have to rebuild the offensive line and fill the gaps at all three receiving posts, however.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 41, Lafayette 16

Rutgers crushed Lafayette with a well-balanced passing and running attack. The Knights scored 31 points in the first half, holding the Leopards scoreless.

QB Mike Yanchell, starting his first game, completed eight of 13 passes for 108 yards and rushed for two TDs while throwing for one. Larry Robertson picked up 125 yards in 18 carries, running 38 yards for a score. Steve Ferrughelli also tallied and John Pesci added two field goals.

Rich McKay and Tom Conway scored the Lafayette touchdowns.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Of the 66 games played since 1882, Rutgers has won 37, lost 28, and tied one. (Lafayette's records count a Rutgers default in 1893.) Scores of the last 10 games:

PRINCETON PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 22; Lettermen Lost: 13

Coach Jake McCandless feels that if his squad can reduce turnovers, his 15 returning starters can lead the Tigers to a successful season. The strong point on offense should be the running game, led by Hank Bjorklund who last year gained over 1000 yards in eight games. Problem spots include the receiving positions and center.

Defensively, Princeton will be strong up the middle with defensive tackles Carl Barisich and Bob Saunders, middle guard Joe Parsons and linebackers Phil Barbaccia and Pete Boyle. The secondary also returns three lettermen.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Princeton 41, Rutgers 14

Trailing 7-6 at the start of the second period, Princeton exploded for 22 points in five and a half minutes. The Tigers amassed 371 yards on the ground, led by Hank Bjorklund who gained 106 yards and scored two touchdowns. Sophomore QB Rod Plummer completed seven of 11 passes for two scores and ran for another.

Other Princeton touchdowns were by Brian McCullough (2) and Willie Williams.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Princeton has won 51 of 61 but only 7 of the last 13 played in this football's oldest rivalry, which began on Nov. 6, 1869 with a Rutgers victory. Scores of the last 10 games

CORNELL PROSPECTS

Lettermen Returning: 34; Lettermen Lost: 10

Jack Musick has the potential for a powerful squad with a solid nucleus plus All-American tailback Ed Marinaro, who has rushed for 2,834 yards in two seasons. The only question marks may be at quarterback and tight end.

Flanker Tom Albright will help Marinaro in leading the Cornell attack. Defensively Cornell is headed by cornerback Don Jean, end Bill Ellis, and tackle Tom Guba. Shoeless kicker John Killian, who hit eight of 15 field goals last season, may make the difference in close games.

LAST GAME: Rutgers 21, Cornell 7 (1969)

Rich Policastro hit 16 of 27 passes for 195 yards as Rutgers beat Cornell. Policastro rushed for one score and threw for another. Al Fenstemacher caught the scoring pass. Larry Robertson plunged for the last Scarlet score.

Sophomore Ed Marinaro had a big day for Cornell, gaining 245 yards in 41 carries and scoring the lone Cornell touchdown on a 28-yard run.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Cornell leads 3-2, in a series halted in 1925, but resumed in 1968. Scores of the games:

LEHIGH PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 25; Lettermen Lost: 12

Coach Fred Dunlap feels that experience will give the Engineers an excellent chance for their first winning season since 1961.

The offense will be looking for a passing game to complement an established running attack. Leading runners are fullback John Rizzo and tailback Don Diorio. Spearheading the line will be co-captain John Hill, son of Rutgers' business manager of athletics, Otto Hill.

Defensively, co-captain Garry Scheib will lead the secondary and Jack Smith heads a solid linebacking corps.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Lehigh 7, Rutgers 0

Lehigh scored a second period touchdown and played defense the rest of the way to defeat the Scarlet. Halfback Jack Paget's 31-yard burst gave the Engineers the ball on the Rutgers three-yard line and Jack Rizzo scored.

Rutgers was inside the Lehigh 40 seven times but failed to capitalize on any scoring opportunities.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Rutgers holds a 38-28-1 advantage in the series dating back to 1884. Scores of the last ten games:

*Boardwalk Bowl

DELAWARE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 21; Lettermen Lost: 21

Delaware, winner of the Lambert Cup and victor of the Boardwalk Bowl the past three seasons, should be strong again although 15 new starters must be found. Coach Tubby Raymond must replace two All-Americans, guard Conway Hayman and back Chuck Hall.

Only one offensive lineman returns, but the reserves got lots of playing time last year and will be bolstered by good newcomers. Defensively, the Hens appear to be strongest at linebacker.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Delaware 54, Rutgers 21

Delaware ground out a total of 499 yards on the ground to set a school record as the Hens dominated the Scarlet. The 54 points was the most against Rutgers since 1953.

Chuck Hall gained 109 yards and scored three TDs to lead the Hens. Steve Ferrughelli, Larry Robertson, and Leo Gasienica tallied for Rutgers.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Rutgers leads Delaware 14-12-3 in the series dating back to 1901. Scores of the last 10 games:

COLUMBIA PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 27; Lettermen Lost: 7

With all backfield starters returning, Coach Frank Navarro's Lions figure to score a lot of points. The passing combination of quarterback Don Jackson and flanker Jesse Parks could be one of the best in the East. The line needs bolstering, however.

Defensively, Columbia will be in excellent shape, missing only one starter. Leading the secondary will be co-captain and all-Ivy selection Charlie Johnson. Paul Kaliades at middle linebacker and end Larry Brion are other defensive standouts.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Columbia 30, Rutgers 14

Columbia celebrated its Centennial Game by pulling sensational plays to hand Rutgers its fifth straight defeat. Quarterback Don Jackson connected on nine of 17 passes for 157 yards, including three scoring aerials.

Mike Jones, Jess Parks and John Sefcik made sparkling catches of TD passes for the Lions and Jackson rushed for a score. Rutgers TDs were by Steve Ferrughelli and John Rabuck.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: In football's second oldest rivalry, which began in 1870, Columbia leads Rutgers 20-18-5. Scores of the last ten games:

BUCKNELL PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 29; Lettermen Lost: 16

Bucknell will have more speed and strength than in the past two seasons. There also is experience at almost every position, much of it in the junior class. Coach Fred Prender hopes "we'll be ready to play the schedule we face."

Offensively, Bucknell will be led by junior tailback Rick Diez and quarterback Howard Burke. Defensively, the need is for speed in the secondary and in line-backing.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 21, Bucknell 7

Rutgers QB Mike Yanceff rushed for 99 yards and completed 13 of 19 passes for 111 yards as Rutgers halted a five-game losing streak. Bob Shuttie, Bill Donaldson and Bruce Miller scored for the Scarlet while Rick Diez tallied for Bucknell.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: In the series that began in 1922, Rutgers leads 6-3.

ARMY PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 14, Lettermen Lost: 19

Offensively, Army will be looking for a solid line behind which its talented backs can operate. Returning for the Cadets will be last season's leading rusher Ray Ritacco, and starting quarterback Dick Atha. The interior line positions pose a problem as only two lettermen remain.

Coach Tom Cahill should have a solid defense with seven starters returning. Although the tackle positions are again unsettled, Army will have two fine ends in Captain John Roth and Steve Bogosian. Gary Topping will head the linebacking corps and the secondary will return three lettermen.

LAST GAME, 1968: Army 24, Rutgers 0

The Cadets took advantage of two first period interceptions, scoring after both miscues to defeat Rutgers in muddy Rutgers Stadium.

Lynn Moore scored the first Army TD after an interception and Tom Haller picked off a pass and returned it 30 yards for a score. Arden Jensen kicked a field goal and Bill Hunter's run completed the scoring. Rutgers lost only two of 10 games while Army was 7-3.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Army leads Rutgers 9-1 in the series that began in 1891. Scores of the games:

HOLY CROSS PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 28; Lettermen Lost: 16

Following spring practice, new head coach Ed Doherty expressed concern over a lack of depth, especially in the line. Citing the inexperience of his group of lettermen, Doherty, however, felt that his top 22 men were good ones.

The most notable losses were key defensive men, but all 28 lettermen started at one time or another in 1970. The leading returnees include defensive backs Mark Becker and Rich Pelletier, running backs Ed Jenkins and Joe Wilson and offensive lineman George Olson. A trio of linebackers, Bob Cooney, Dan Harper and Steve Hickey may become two-way performers. Several sophomores may see service, including wide receiver Joe Neary, who caught 25 passes for the frosh.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 37, Holy Cross 7

Rutgers won its third straight game and upped its record to 4-5 as end Larry Christoff tied Bucky Hatchett's 1949 record of three TD receptions in one game. All scores except John Pesce's 47-yard field goal were via the air.

Christoff took 7- and 6-yarders from Mike Yancheff in the second quarter and grabbed another in the third period from one yard out. Bob Carney snagged a 12-yarder from Yancheff and Leo Gasienska hit Bruce Miller for the final tally. The Crusaders' score came on a 79-yard aerial from Tom Clapton to fullback Joe Wilson on the opening play from scrimmage in the third quarter.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: The rivalry shows Holy Cross ahead, 10-4. The series began in 1916. Scores of the last 10 games:

COLGATE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 27; Lettermen Lost: 7

Coach Neil Wheelwright will look forward to the return of 27 lettermen plus several fine freshmen from last year's undefeated team. If the young players jell early, Colgate could have one of its best teams ever.

Sophomore Tom Paar is expected to start at QB. All-American candidate guard Brian Housel heads an experienced offensive line.

Defensively, the Raiders should be solid if the defensive line can be repaired. Co-captain Tom Doyle is a standout performer in the secondary while linebacker Ray Helbing and tackle Dave Palmer are also candidates for defensive honors.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 30, Colgate 14

Last year's high scoring game proved no exception to the Colgate-Rutgers tradition as the Scarlet won its fourth straight after a 1-5 start to finish at the .500 level.

The defense, led by Larry Clymer's three interceptions, was responsible for much of the scoring. Rutgers picked off a record six passes and recovered three fumbles.

SERIES RECORD WITH RUTGERS: Colgate and Rutgers are tied 12-12 in the series that began in 1933. Scores of the last 10 games:

MORGAN STATE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 23; Lettermen Lost 18

The perennially strong Bears, who have gained television prominence in the last few years, will be seeking to find replacements for the entire interior offensive line and for two-thirds of the defensive backfield. Among those lost were two College All-Americans in tackle Harold Bell and defensive back Willie Germany; also high draft choice Larry Watson.

However, the Bears, who open the season with a nationally televised game with Grambling, are blessed with a fleet of big, fast backs and a host of huge linemen.

THE URBAN CLASSIC

This contest, tabbed the Urban Classic, will raise funds for community-sponsored programs in Newark, New Brunswick and Piscataway. It has been coordinated jointly by the Greater Newark Chamber of Commerce and the Recreation Planning Council of Newark, and United Community Services of Central New Jersey.

This will be the first time Rutgers has played against a college with a predominantly black student body. In Bowl Games Morgan has met West Chester and the University of Delaware in the past two seasons. Morgan will be the 92nd inter-collegiate opponent for Rutgers and the first new opponent since 1967, when the Scarlet first played the University of Massachusetts.

The Outlook — 1971

The 1971 Rutgers football team has less experience than any previous one coached by John Bateman; it also could be the most exciting.

"Young teams usually are exciting to watch, but it's not the kind of excitement coaches like to see," Bateman said. "But we have some promising players among the newcomers and we should have the kind of team which will develop steadily as it gains confidence."

The Scarlet's problem is a senior class numbering only eight and a letterman cadre of only 13, including place-kicker John Pesce. Assuming that lettermen all win starting jobs, that means 10 spots are open for newcomers and it could be that between six and eight starters will be sophomores.

Some of the questions were answered in spring practice, but key ones remain for the fall. Of prime concern, of course, is quarterback, where an unheralded sophomore, Gary Smolyn, showed so well in two spring games that he thrust himself smack into the middle of an already complicated situation.

Rutgers' strengths appear to be its solid corps of linebackers, receiving and a respectable group of running backs.

Suspect until they prove otherwise are the front lines. Of the front four on defense and the six close offensive linemen, there are only three returnees and sophomores dominate among the aspirants for the vacant jobs.

There is some experience and considerable ability in the secondary and Pesce gives the Scarlet a three-point threat from 40 or more yards out.

Offensively, oft-injured Larry Robertson is the tailback and Bill Donaldson, a veteran of numerous positions, is the fullback. Bob Carney is the flanker.

Dave Rinehimer, guard, and Larry Christoff, a multi-talented tight end, are the forward wall veterans. The rest of the line is new and will average about 215, but its speed is questionable.

Defensively, Andy Malekoff, Gary Martin and Sam Picketts are the veteran linebackers to support the basically new four-man front. All are quick, strong and cover well against passes. Alan Bain, tackle, is the one returnee up front. All of his partners may be sophomores and inexperience here will hurt.

Bob Shutte, moved from halfback to safety, and Joe Epps, halfback, each lettered last year but the other secondary men will be new.

"This is one of the better groups of sophomores in recent seasons, but there is little time for learning. These young men would best be able to mature behind veteran starters, but that luxury isn't possible. So we'll rise or fall on the newcomers, with an eye toward late-season maturity," Bateman said.

The Leading Scarlet Knights

Ends

LARRY CHRISTOFF, junior. A tight end for the last four games last year, Larry caught four TD passes, three against Holy Cross to tie Bucky Hatchett's 1949 single game record . . . Began season as starting offensive guard and saw action also at defensive end . . . Grabbed 16 passes for 164 yards . . . Majors in Business Administration.

BOB DILLARD, sophomore. A two-way performer as a freshman, Bob is now strictly on defense and could man the starting slot . . . Especially quick and just short of 200 pounds . . . Determination impressed staff in spring . . . A former track man in high school . . . Attends Livingston College . . . In Criminology curriculum, wants to be a federal agent.

KEN HALL, sophomore. Ken advanced quickly in spring practice and emerged the leading receiver in the spring game, taking eight passes, most of them in heavy traffic . . . Is catcher in baseball . . . Business Administration student.

ROY MALINAK, junior. A three-sport schoolboy star in football, basketball and baseball . . . Started one game at linebacker last year after playing tailback as frosh . . . Now at 205, is at defensive end . . . Started in midfield for lacrosse team last spring . . . Majoring in Agricultural Business.

JACK SALEMI, sophomore. A bruising freshman fullback, Jack has taken a try at the defensive end post and has not been found wanting . . . Played the spot in high school, impressed staff with strength and agility . . . An advocate of weight-lifting . . . Economics major.

Tackles

ALAN BAIN, junior. Called upon to go both ways twice last year . . . Early in year used only on offense, but played the final four games on defense . . . A 110 per cent ballplayer, according to coaching staff, prefers defense . . . Would like to be 10 pounds above sophomore weight of 215 . . . A Business major.

MARTY BENANTE, sophomore. A high school teammate of signal-caller Leo Casenica, Marty impressed in spring, could break into the starting lineup. Needs experience and could get it quick . . . Majors in Agricultural Business.

JOHN KEOUGH, junior. A former center, John was given a long look at offensive tackle this spring . . . Continued improvement could give him the job . . . Majors in Agricultural Business.

PAUL LEBEDZ, junior. Paul added poundage and battled in spring for a starting defensive tackle post . . . The 15 pounds helped the former wrestler and track performer to impress . . . Plans to teach . . . Follows Physical Education curriculum.

BOB MORTON, sophomore. Bob could be one of the best of the new offensive linemen . . . Was heavyweight wrestler on Scarlet varsity, posting a 2-3-1 record. Took third place in the Plebe Tournament at West Point . . . Majoring in Economics.

SCOTT SPENCER, sophomore. At 6-4, 240, Scott is the biggest man on the squad . . . Was impressive at an offensive post in spring but could be used either way . . . Majors in Landscape Architecture.

SAM TURNER, sophomore. On the basis of spring drills, Sam could measure up to a role on the offensive side . . . Had disappointing frosh year, but expected to contribute heavily . . . Interested in weightlifting and the guitar . . . Was an all-county and greater New Jersey lineman . . . A Liberal Arts major.

Guards

DOUG DAVIS, sophomore. Doug is among four sophs trying to fill the vacancy at the guard spot . . . Has the qualifications of strength and speed . . . A scholastic shot put and discus standout . . . A Liberal Arts student.

DAVE RINEHIMER, junior. Started last four games of '70 season and is proud of the four-game win streak he helped build . . . Most veteran of the interior linemen . . . Is aware of the leadership he must assume . . . A center as a freshman . . . In high school was all-county in football and baseball . . . Agricultural Business major.

ANDY TIGHE, sophomore. Andy was given spring nod at a first line guard post and held his ground . . . A 6-0, 225 pounder, he was football captain, district wrestling champ, track team member and senior class president in high school . . . Likes to hunt . . . Majoring in Liberal Arts.

Centers

VIC LAPKOWICZ, junior. A reserve tackle last year, Vic was returned to his high school position and played it with great authority through the spring . . . Now anxious for the starting spot which is his to build . . . Was All-Western Pa. at Carmichaels High where he also earned all county honors in basketball and participated in track . . . Strong at 220 . . . Intends to be a dentist . . . A Chemical Engineering student.

PETE BEGG, junior. A reserve tackle last season, Pete is learning to play center . . . Was a scholastic golfer, still likes the game . . . Was an Allegheny-Monongahela all star . . . Heading toward industrial management, Pete majors in Business Administration.

Linebackers

FRED BILLOCK, junior. Fred saw some service last year as a defensive back but has taken a shot at "knight" where he would fill the shoes of Larry Clymer . . . Mid-year appendectomy cut short his sophomore season, during which he started twice . . . Electrical Engineering student.

ANDY MALEKOFF, junior. A three-sport high school athlete, Andy has taken his uncle's nickname, Boomy, and plays in that style . . . Off fine sophomore seasons in football and lacrosse, Andy seems assured of stardom in both sports . . . Had superb spring game, could be one of East's best . . . An Economics major.

GARY MARTIN, senior. A two-year letterman, Gary was a steady performer in '69 and '70 . . . The former tackle fills the middle guard spot in some defenses and uses his 200 pounds to good advantage . . . An executive officer in the Arnold Air Society, he wants to be an Air Force pilot and preps by flying already . . . Majors in Meteorology.

SAM PICKETTS, senior. Reached excellence last season and will be responsible for defensive signals this fall . . . Versatile Sam pilfered five aerials in 1970, returned one for 54 yards and a TD . . . Was an All-East weekly selection after spectacular game vs. Harvard . . . A former high school quarterback, he also played basketball and baseball . . . Business Administration major.

J. B. ST. ANGELO, sophomore. J. B., for James Barry, served the frosh as a running back and defensive halfback but is candidate for "knight" . . . On the basis of his spring game effort, he might be there . . . Was all-county in football and baseball in high school . . . Majoring in Business.

JOHN WITKOWSKI, sophomore. A leading frosh linebacker last year, John will play an active role behind, and perhaps with, the strong veteran backers . . . Was all-league performer in high school as linebacker and offensive tackle . . . Majoring in Civil Engineering.

Kicker

JOHN PESCE, junior. John was Rutgers leading scorer in 1970 with 33 points on four field goals and 21 PATS . . . Kicked 4 of 8 FGs, from 30, 35, 28 and 22 yards . . . A 40-yarder in spring game . . . Has invented holding device . . . Economics major.

Quarterbacks

RANDY BOROFF, junior. Randy, who excelled in lacrosse, scoring 21 goals, is in the thick of the fight for the starting quarterback post, but could figure at safety, too . . . In limited action last year, Randy completed eight of 15 passes for one TD . . . Likes to make things happen . . . Full of confidence . . . A Physical Education major.

LEO GASIENICA, junior. Leo was groomed for the job as a sophomore, but fractured thumb curtailed development . . . The 6-3, 200 pounder hit on 25 of 53 aerials for 244 yards and one TD . . . Throws hard and runs well and works diligently on strength and skill . . . Excellent future . . . Fine student, looks to law school . . . Majoring in Political Science.

GARY SMOLYN, sophomore. Felt by many to have been the most impressive player in spring practice, Gary became a contender at quarterback . . . A Group III

All-Stater at that position, he broke both thumbs as a freshman and was forced to play safety . . . Excels at running the option . . . Law school in future . . . History major.

Running Backs

CHARLIE DiPONZIANO, junior. Charlie waited patiently in the wings last season, getting only five carries for 20 yards . . . Among top runners in spring game . . . In back-up role, could see lots of action . . . Only 5-10, 175, he is determined runner . . . A Business Administration student.

BILL DONALDSON, senior. With previous experience at tailback and tight end, Bill now is established at fullback . . . Has gained 192 yards in spot roles past two years . . . Has been troubled by injuries in past . . . Was an All-Long Island performer . . . Anxious to teach, he is History major.

ED JONES, sophomore. An All-State high school halfback, Ed was the best frosh runner and looms as a future star . . . Excellent quickness and great balance go along with good size (6-1, 190) . . . Ran 100 and 220 in track . . . Will prep behind Robertson but could see frequent action . . . Poses a break-away threat . . . Majoring in Liberal Arts.

JIM JENNINGS, sophomore. Jay-Jay uses his 6-1, 205-pound frame well and showed great potential in the spring . . . Was All-Western Mass., reported to have a future in baseball . . . Was scholastic batting champ and home-run leader . . . Needs experience which year should provide . . . A Physical Education major.

LARRY ROBERTSON, senior. Larry was 1970's leading rusher and a leading receiver . . . He has 802 yards running, 60 points and 27 receptions in two seasons . . . Scored three TDs against Navy as a soph . . . Missed four games last year with two injuries . . . Can break it at any time . . . Fine punter, a lefty . . . Majors in Agricultural Sciences.

Wide Receivers

ANDY BYERS, senior. Despite limited action last year, Andy is high among split ends and flankers . . . A transfer from Newark Rutgers two years ago, he was born in Germany, was with father on service tour of duty in Japan and then returned to Germany for four more years . . . Works with handicapped children . . . German major.

BOB CARNEY, junior. Bob was the fifth best receiver in 1970 after winning starting job in third game . . . Fourth in lacrosse scoring with 21 points as midfielder last spring . . . Was a running back in high school . . . Wants to be an Air Force pilot, already with time in the air . . . Physical Education major.

BRUCE MILLER, junior. Bruce had an auspicious debut in '70 spring game, then gained 165 yards in 47 carries as a tailback . . . Tallied twice on passes, now is at flanker, where he can catch and run . . . Brother Bob was '70 baseball captain . . . An avid reader . . . Majors in Business Administration.

Defensive Backs

LEN BOONE, sophomore. On the basis of a good spring, Len may get a role in the secondary in his first varsity shot . . . Played well in intrasquad game . . . Was running back and flanker at Bordentown where he also ran the 100 and 220 . . . Music hobby . . . Political Science major.

FRED CERTOSIMO, junior. One of the team's fastest men, Fred was an All-State high school quarterback and an Eastern wrestling champ at New York Military Academy . . . Will be given full shot at halfback . . . Saw limited action in 1970 . . . Headed to medical school . . . Animal Science major.

Albert W. Twitchell, Director of Athletics

ALBERT W. TWITCHELL is entering his 11th year as athletic director. A 1935 Rutgers alumnus, Twitchell has been on the University staff since 1947, serving as a coach in lacrosse (head) and football (assistant) for the first 13 years. Twitchell compiled a 90-31-1 12-year lacrosse record, was once coach of the year and is in the Lacrosse Hall of Fame. In administration, he has served on numerous eastern and national committees, was a principal organizer, and is president, of the National Association of College Athletic Directors, and directed Rutgers' resounding Centennial celebration in 1969.

As an undergraduate, he received the Donald Leslie Coursen trophy, highest individual athletic award given by the University, after excelling in football and lacrosse.

Frederick E. Gruninger, Associate Director

SINCE July, 1968, Fred Gruninger has been Al Twitchell's chief aide. A 1953 Rutgers alumnus, Fred served in Alumni Relations for five years, holding the title of Associate Director, before shifting to the Athletic Department in 1964. As an undergraduate he played football and baseball and following his graduation was a golf professional briefly. For eight years he has coached the Rutgers varsity golf team, which he has directed to a 93-28-2 record.

Otto H. Hill, Business Manager

A MEMBER OF the Rutgers staff since 1947, Otto Hill was appointed business manager of athletics in 1961. A 1942 graduate of Rutgers, he served in the Army and Air Force during World War II returning to earn his master's degree in 1947. He was a football assistant through 1955 and served as freshman and later varsity swimming coach until 1961, when he assumed his present assignment.

Donald Heilman, Assistant Director

BUD HEILMAN combines duties as assistant athletic director and coordinator of recruiting. He joined the Rutgers staff in 1966 after six years as head football coach at Kutztown State and was line coach for five years. He is an alumnus of West Chester State.

Supporting Personnel

TEAM PHYSICIAN — Dr. Hyman Copleman; Team Dentist — Dr. Joel Fertig; Head Trainer — Andrew Sivess; Custodian of Equipment — John Powers.

All-Americans

Four Rutgers players have been selected as All-Americans by recognized national agencies. They are Paul Robeson, Homer Hazel, Bill Austin and Alex Kroll.

Robeson, an end, was selected in 1917 and 1918 to become the first Rutgers player so honored.

Hazel, who died in 1968, was selected in 1923 and 1924, the first time as an end, the next year at fullback.

It wasn't until 1958 that another Rutgers player was selected. Austin, who played tailback in the single wing, was selected 12 years ago at a halfback position.

And in 1961, when Rutgers completed a 9-0 season, Kroll was named to the center spot, earning first-team ranking on seven of the nine nationally-named teams.

Where It All Began

As most football fans are aware, the first intercollegiate football game was played Nov. 6, 1869, in New Brunswick, between Rutgers and Princeton. Rutgers won that game, six goals to four.

In 1969, Rutgers and Princeton were joined by all the nation's colleges in celebrating the football Centennial. Under the direction of Athletic Director Al Twitchell and in conjunction with the N.C.A.A., a season-long, nation-wide celebration was held.

The anniversary was recognized by the issuance of a 6¢ commemorative stamp, some 350 colleges used "100" helmet and uniform insignia, a centennial medallion was coined and Barbara Specht of Texas Tech reigned as the Centennial Queen.
